

Short profile of Professor Dr. Rose Hsiu-li Juan

Rose Hsiu-li Juan is Distinguished Professor in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, National Chung Hsing University, Taichung, Taiwan. Her academic service includes: Board Member of English and American Literature Association of The Association for the Study of Literature and Environment (ASLE-Taiwan). She was the Deputy Dean of the College of Liberal Arts (NCHU), Director of the Humanities Center (NCHU), and chairperson of DFLL. Her major areas of research are global indigenous study of literature and culture, Native North American literature, ecocriticism, multiculturalism, and cross-cultural communication. Her publications appear in Chung-Wai Literary Quarterly, Review of English and American Literature, volumes of selected papers of ICLA Congress (XVIIth 2004, XVIII 2007, and XIXth 2010), and as book chapters in Mapping Native North American Literatures: Reflections on Multiculturalism (Taiwan, coeditor with Hsinya Huang), An Introduction to Ecoliterature (Taiwan), and Ecocriticism in Taiwan: Identity, Environment, and the Arts (Lexington Books). Her creative writings won literary prizes and were anthologized in prose selections.